Listening 1

Carl Did you have a nice weekend, Anna?
Anna Yes. It was great. It was different. My husband Paul and I usually stay at home, call friends, and read newspapers on weekends. But last weekend, believe it or not, we went to a rock festival.
Carl A rock festival? Wow.
Anna Yeah. My children stayed at my parents' for the weekend, and Paul and I went to a rock festival.
Carl Good for you. Was it fun?
Anna Well, yes. We had a great time. Well ... Saturday was great. It was sunny and warm, and the bands were fantastic. But the next day wasn't so good. It rained in the afternoon and I was tired. But it was OK.
Carl Cool. So how long were you there?
Anna Well, actually, the festival started on Friday but we didn't want to stay for two nights. I don't like camping very much! So, we missed the first night. We got there on Saturday morning and left late on Sunday. The traffic was terrible when we left, so we didn't get home until eleven thirty.
Carl Who did you see?
Anna Oh, an African band I didn't know, but they were really good. Then there was an Australian band ... Actually, no, there wasn't. I thought they were Australian, but they were British. And then ...
Carl Don't you know the names of any bands?
Anna Oh, I know. I'm terrible with names. OK. I know there weren't any American bands. But we did see K T Tunstall and a band called The Feeling. They were great.

Listening 2

1
Receptionist Good evening. What's your name, please?
Mr. Gould Bryan Gould.
Receptionist How do you spell your last name?
Mr. Gould G-O-U-L-D.
Receptionist G-O-U-D?
Mr. Gould No. U-L-D. And it's Bryan with a Y, not an I.
Receptionist Ah, OK. B-R-Y-A-N.
Mr. Gould Yes, that's right.
Receptionist OK. Sorry about that, Mr. Gould. You're in room 207.

2
Tina How are you going to get to the airport, Sam?
Sam I'm not sure. It's a real problem. I can't drive there because my car's at my parents' house. So it's the bus.
Tina But the train's very fast and comfortable. Take the train, Sam.
Sam Yes, but it's expensive. And I bought my bus ticket yesterday. So, that's how I'm going to get there.

3
Miguel Who did you meet at David's party, June?
June Oh, well I met his mother, but I didn't meet his dad. He was away on business, I think. I met his brother Jack and Jack's new girlfriend. And I met a lot of David's friends from college. It was a good party and interesting to meet everybody.

4
Bob What do you like doing on weekends, Rachel?
Rachel Well, I work really hard from Monday to Friday, so for me, weekends are for relaxing. And how do you relax?
Bob Well, I don't usually go out in the evenings. I prefer staying at home and cooking nice food and watching a good movie on DVD.
Rachel So, no sports, I guess?
Bob No! I go to exercise classes during the week, but on weekends, I'm lazy!

5
Receptionist Would you like a single room or a double?
Woman Oh, a double, please. With an ocean view. And a TV in the room.
Receptionist Oh ... I'm sorry. There aren't any rooms with an ocean view. But we have a nice room with a TV and a view of the town. It's a very nice view. You can't see the ocean, but you can see the mountains.
Woman Oh ... OK. That's fine. How much is it?
